16-year-old Dione LaRue became Dee Dee Sharp and a big star on the label starting in 1962.

It took The Orlons a while to find their groove, but when the Wah-Watusi hit the radio in 1962, the rest fell into place.

In 1966 C-P bought the master of 96 Tears from Pa-Go-Go records and sent it to #1 for ? & The Mysterians

By 1967 C-P was just about through. Evie Sands was one of their last artists. She went unnoticed.
